"THE ART OF COMPANIONING THE MOURNER: Caring Versus Curing"

This informative workshop will help enhance your knowledge and skills in supporting people who are experiencing grief and loss. Anchored in Dr. Alan Wolfelt's "companioning" model of grief care, there will be recognition of how grief and mourning are normal and necessary experiences that are fundamentally a journey of the heart and soul. A critical distinction between caring versus curing will be outlined. You will leave with a wealth of knowledge regarding the transformative nature of grief.

This workshop will be helpful to anyone who wants to learn more about essential caregiving principles when caring for grieving persons. It will be particularly helpful to counselors, social workers, clergy, chaplains, nurses and lay ministers. If you know someone who would find this helpful, encourage them to register!
